

QEDynamics License

A license to use QEDynamics means that you and your research group may use the QEDynamics program subject to the terms given below. This agreement applies to all revisions of QEDynamics. In the following all references to QEDynamics refer to all parts of QEDynamics, that is, all files in the distribution as well as generated object files and executable ones. In order to obtain and use QEDynamics, you must agree to the following terms:

1. Copyright for the source code and the documentation rests with the authors and is not being placed in the public domain.
 - a. You are required to make sure that no part of QEDynamics (including executable and object files) is distributed to users outside your research group. In particular, no person leaving your research group may take a copy of QEDynamics with him/her, unless that person has obtained his/her own license.
 - b. You will make sure that no part of QEDynamics can be accessed by people not included in this license. When you stop using a computer you will make sure that all QEDynamics files, including object and executable files, are deleted on that computer.
 - c. You will delete all copies of QEDynamics when it has ended its useful life.
 - d. You may modify the QEDynamics program for your own use, provided you state that you have used a modified version of QEDynamics together with the reference to QEDynamics given below.
 - e. You may not include QEDynamics source code, in whole or in part, in any program code you distribute to other users, whether they have a QEDynamics license or not, without the specific written consent of the QEDynamics authors or their representatives.
2. This code is provided only for research activities whose primary results are destined for publication in the open literature. Results obtained with the code may not be used for proprietary purposes, and no fee may be charged for the use of the program or any part of the program.
3. You accept that the experimental nature of this program means that there is no warranty of correctness of results for fitness for a particular purpose. You understand that the authors of QEDynamics cannot be held responsible in any way for any consequences arising from the use of the program. While every attempt will be made to correct any errors reported to QEDynamics administrator e-mail address (qedynamics@tachibana.kues.kyoto-u.ac.jp), the authors of QEDynamics are not obliged to make such corrections, nor is there any support for users implied by making the program available.

4. Any published work arising from use of the QEDynamics program must acknowledge the program with an appropriate citation. A suitable text would be: "QEDynamics, M. Senami, K. Ichikawa, and A. Tachibana, (see <http://www.tachibana.kues.kyoto-u.ac.jp/qed/>)."

5. You will see to that other members of your research group using QEDynamics abide these terms.

I have read and agree to the terms for the use of the QEDynamics program.
